

B COAG's response to stage 1 report (13 April 2007)

In its communiqué of 13 April 2007 (COAG 2007, Regulatory Reform Plan, p. 10), COAG responded to the Commission's stage one report as follows:

- COAG has agreed to proceed to the second stage of a study to benchmark the compliance costs of regulation, to be undertaken by the Productivity Commission. Benchmarking the compliance costs of regulation will assist all governments to identify further areas for possible regulation reform. The benchmarking study will examine the regulatory compliance costs associated with becoming and being a business, the delays and uncertainties of gaining approvals in doing business, and the regulatory duplication and inconsistencies in doing business interstate. COAG has asked Senior Officials to finalise by the end of May 2007 any variations to the areas of regulation to be benchmarked in the three-year program outlined in the Commission's feasibility study 'Performance Benchmarking of Australian Business Regulation'. COAG noted the Commonwealth will fully fund the benchmarking exercise.
