

Submission of Elle Mamalis, VIC

Productivity Commission Inquiry into the increased application of competition, contestability and informed user choice to human services

What if it was your child, grand child, loved one or family member who is vulnerable due to no fault of their own and needs support from an array of community services that have been cut by govt?