

Submission of Angela Villis - SA

Productivity Commission Inquiry into the increased application of competition, contestability and informed user choice to human services

I work for an NGO service provider and my clients have severe mental illness. I've been working in this sector for 7 years now and I believe that social and community services should not be open to private providers to tender for government funding.

Thank you.