

Brief submission

I work in rural communities and private sector podiatrists will not come out here to serve the local communities because they don't make any money. We must keep Medicare out of private hands because profits will rule and there will be great swathes of the community who will have to go without because private companies can't make a profit.

Helen Day