

Brief submission

My husband and I are disabled. I am a retired nurse. we live in a rural area and the health system is limited. Health care for this community is vital to continue and only improve for the future.

Robert and Janet Gillson