

Brief submission

I have some experience as a voluntary statistical researcher, and would like to say that it makes sense to have Medicare in public hands, as this makes the transmission of science based clinical medicine more egalitarian.

Nicholas Scott-Mills