

Dear Sir,

I am appalled and strongly disagree with the proposal on social and emotional wellbeing checks. This could lead to drugging of children which have permanent deleterious effect of the physical health and well being of the child.

Sincerely,
Norman