

Submission of Fay McCormack, VIC

Productivity Commission Inquiry into the increased application of competition, contestability and informed user choice to human services

Will lead to a casualised, low skilled workforce employed by for profit businesses.