

Brief submission

I am opposed to the privatisation of our community services as running them for profit has the potential to money away from the most vulnerable people in our society and is a conflict of interest . The not for profit and public organisations are doing a great job already, there's no need to change the current operational system.

Natalie Stevens