

To Whom it may concern,

I am writing in absolute disgust at the news that we may have a law passed to drug children as young as three years old!

Children do not need to be drugged to prevent mental disorders - this is a falsehood and a crime against human rights.

Please take this as my complete and utter disagreement against this law being passed.

Sincerely,

Charlotte Thorpe