

Privatisation of any Public Service nearly ALWAYS leads to roting and decrease & degradation of services. It is perfectly obvious this will happen because private business are in it only to make a profit. They care not about the services they provide. This has been proved already in the Aged Care sector. The Government is using protectionism for the private sector by not allowing Councils to contribute to Aged Care from ratepayers' funds.

C Steen