

Dear Commissioners,

I am extremely concerned to learn that there is a proposal to screen 0-3 years olds in Australia, which could lead to these children being drugged for so called mental disorders, which are normal childhood behaviours.

I totally disagree with this way of handling these very young children. It is a human rights abuse to drug children with potentially toxic drug.

Regards,
Archalee V