

Brief submission

Rule Number One:

Governments should never privatize anything that has the faintest odor of MONOPOLY. Health is actually a MONOPOLY as there is no alternative.

If someone discovered a seriously effective answer to the Unsustainable, the disease based SICKNESS industry, what chance would you give it of ever being exposed to the light of day? Would you ever hear about it? Would it ever get any go forward?

Think about it!

Terry Wall