

Submission of Rogers Mbanza, ACT

Productivity Commission Inquiry into the increased application of competition, contestability and informed user choice to human services we need to carer about vulnerable people as they deserve to survive like other Australians.

Liberal did promise jobs during election campaigns we still waiting for less unemployment in the country.