

Brief submission

Access to and equity in health provision is the right of every single person living in Australia.

I have been a GP for 34 years and worked in many circumstances and realise the need for all to have access to sound health... Not a system that is underpinned by profit.

Dr Jill Bestic