

Brief submission

The Coalition looks like they will never learn. Make Medicare more efficient by all means, but don't do anything (including a reference to the PC) that can give even a whiff of privatization of any part of it - including freezing the rebate only fees.

Face the reality that Australia is almost the lowest taxed country in the G20, and join the realists calling for higher taxes - not just the weasel words revenue measures.

Dr John Funder