

Dear Commissions,

I submit my belief that any proposal for the wide screening of young children has no basis in science and is in fact a potential large scale abuse of human rights. I further submit that there is no indication of any improved outcome to such a scheme and it is thus a waste of payers money to implement a high risk scheme with no proven basis.

Kind Regards,

Angel Tseng