

I have lived in the UK and the USA. There is a significant difference between these country's health system. Privatisation of our Medicare or health system in any form will create detrimental society issues. DO NOT privatise our Health system.

Donna Gray