To Whom It May Concern,

RE: Productivity Commission Referral – Caring for Older Australians

Aged Care Association Australia (ACAA) in conjunction with Hynes Lawyers and PKF Chartered Accountants has recently released a report on aged care reform titled 'Health Reform – The Aged Care Chapter'.

The release of the report follows a consultation process and an in-depth survey of some two hundred aged care providers.

The report focuses on the short term reform agenda that aged care providers considered essential for ongoing sustainability or systemic systems efficiency gains to support viability.

The report will form part of the ACAA submission to the Commission, however we felt the team undertaking the review may appreciate receiving a stand alone copy of the report.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Yours sincerely
