Dear Productivity Commissioners

I work in retail and I do not want to be considered a 2nd class citizen.

I have a family & I want to spend special days with my family. I want the power to choose. I deserve after working so hard to enjoy two days holiday at Christmas to slow down and enjoy the festive season. I want time to recover after Christmas lunch & I want time to enjoy my children & grandchildren.

With the de-regulation of public holidays I will be pressured none to work when the company requires me not when if I want to work.

Public servants get weekends off & public holidays well I want that too

why doesn't Parliament sit on a Sunday

why ^{don't} schools open 7 days a week

why do shops have to open 7 days a week

I think people should be encouraged to slow down & spend quality time with their families.

Sincerely
