Data collected on English language proficiency

A sentence on page 278 of the study report previously read:

The Australian Education Research Organisation (AERO) (sub. 6, p. 8) noted that ‘all states and territories collect data on English Language Proficiency based on the national English as an Additional Language or Dialect (EAL/D) progressions, but that information is not reported nationally’.

The Commission has amended this sentence as follows to align with the most recent advice from Australian Education Research Organisation (sub. DR113):

The Australian Education Research Organisation (AERO, sub. 6 and DR113) noted that all states and territories collect data on English language proficiency but that the information is not reported nationally.
