

REGULATION OF AIRPORTS

Australia is heavily reliant on air transport

We have the highest number of domestic seats per capita in the world ...

The number of passengers travelling through Australian airports has doubled over the last twenty years

160 million
total travellers in 2017

100+ airports
with passenger services

Our report examines the market power of the four busiest airports in Australia

They are monitored under a light-handed regulatory regime

72% of international and domestic passenger movements in Australia

Find out if they are exercising their market power at

PC.GOV.AU