Please note:

- Copyright in submissions resides with the author(s), not with the Productivity Commission.
- Following processing, public submissions will be placed on the Commission’s website. Submissions will remain on the Commission’s website as public documents indefinitely.
- As this is a public inquiry, ‘in confidence’ material can be accepted only under special circumstances. You should contact the Commission before submitting this material.
- For submissions made by individuals, only your name and the state or territory in which you reside will be published on the Commission’s website. All other contact details will be removed from your submission.

Please indicate if your submission:

☐ Is a public submission, it does NOT contain ‘in confidence’ material and can be placed on the Commission’s website.

☐ Contains SOME material supplied ‘in confidence’ (provided under separate cover and clearly marked IN CONFIDENCE).

☐ I give consent for the Commission to contact me in relation to other Commission work.

Draft and Final Reports will be available from the Commission’s website on release at: https://www.pc.gov.au/inquiries/current/mental-health
