

Australian Government
Productivity Commission

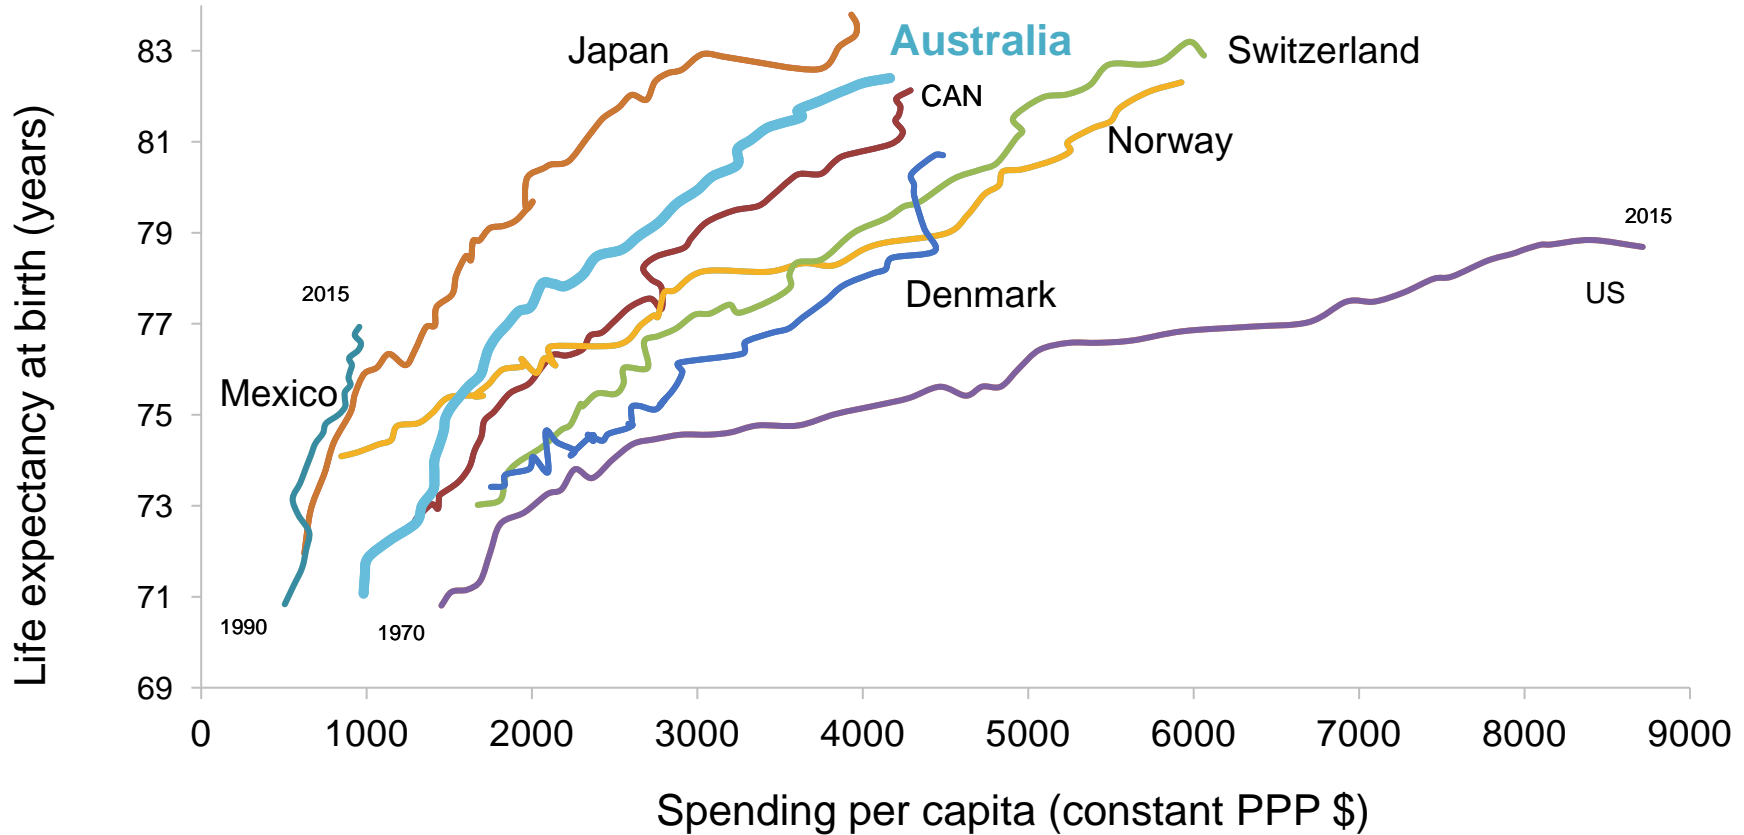

Healthcare – Why Quality Matters

Australian Healthcare Funding Summit

Michael Brennan, Chair Productivity Commission

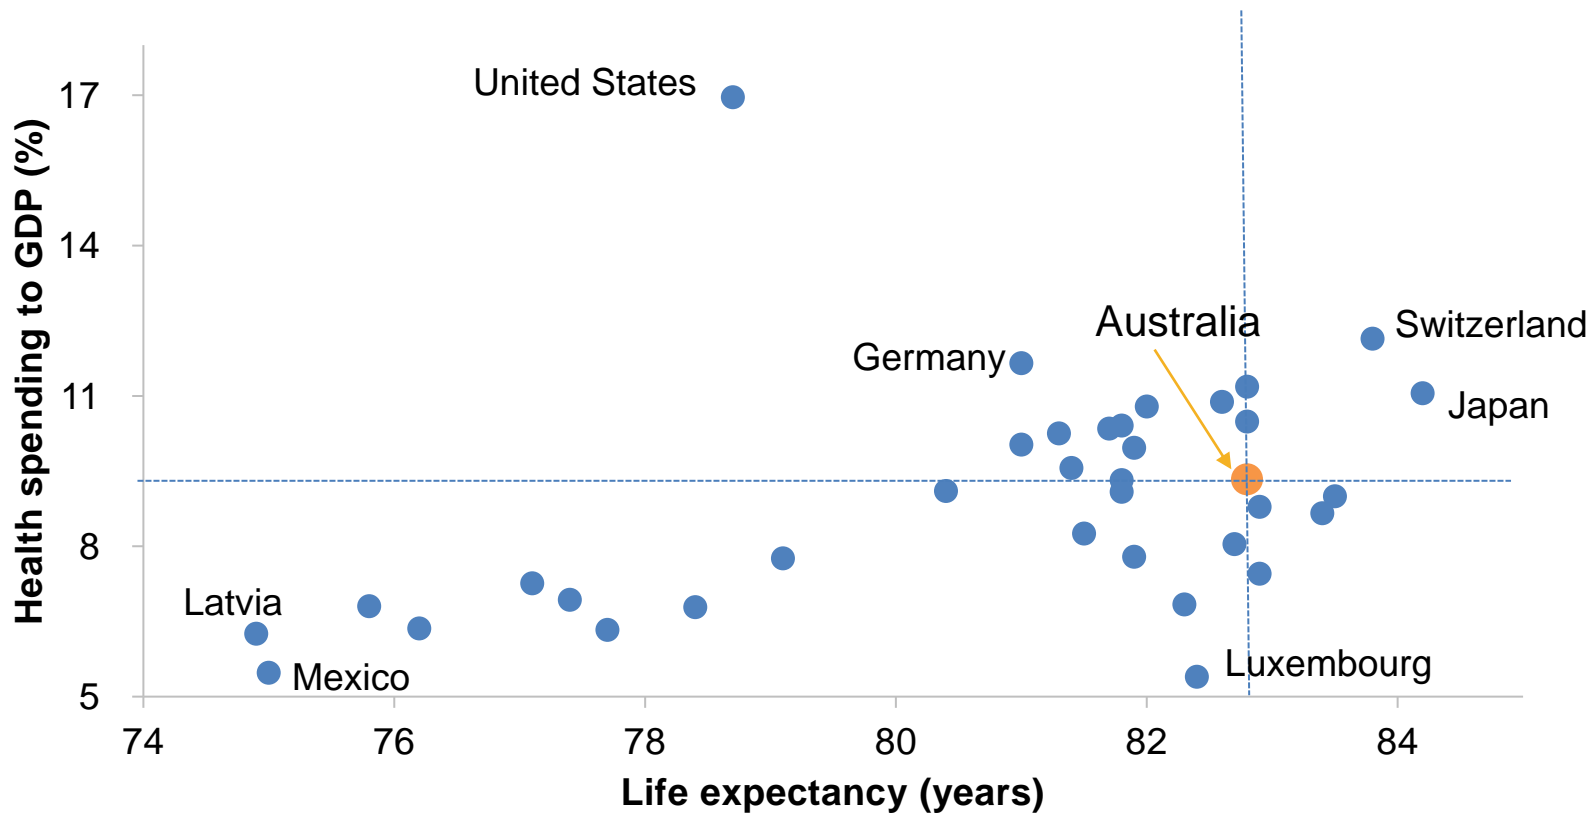

Health spending and longevity

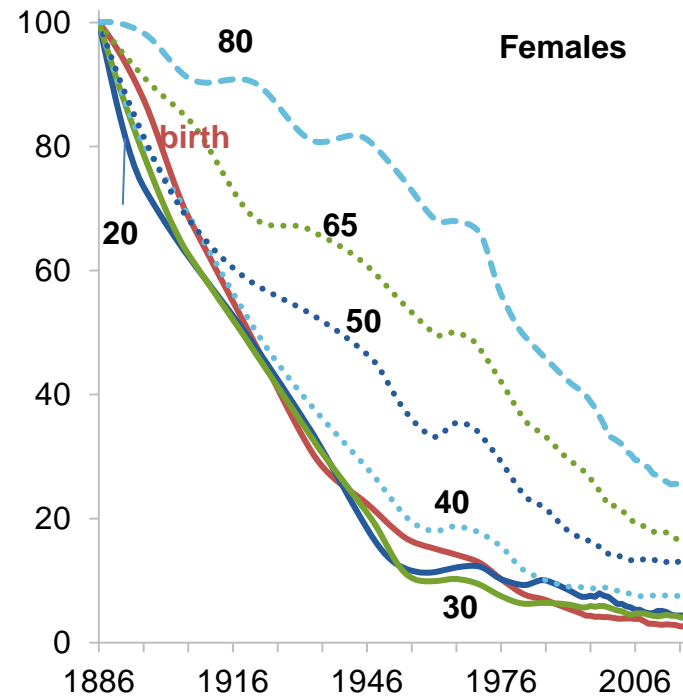

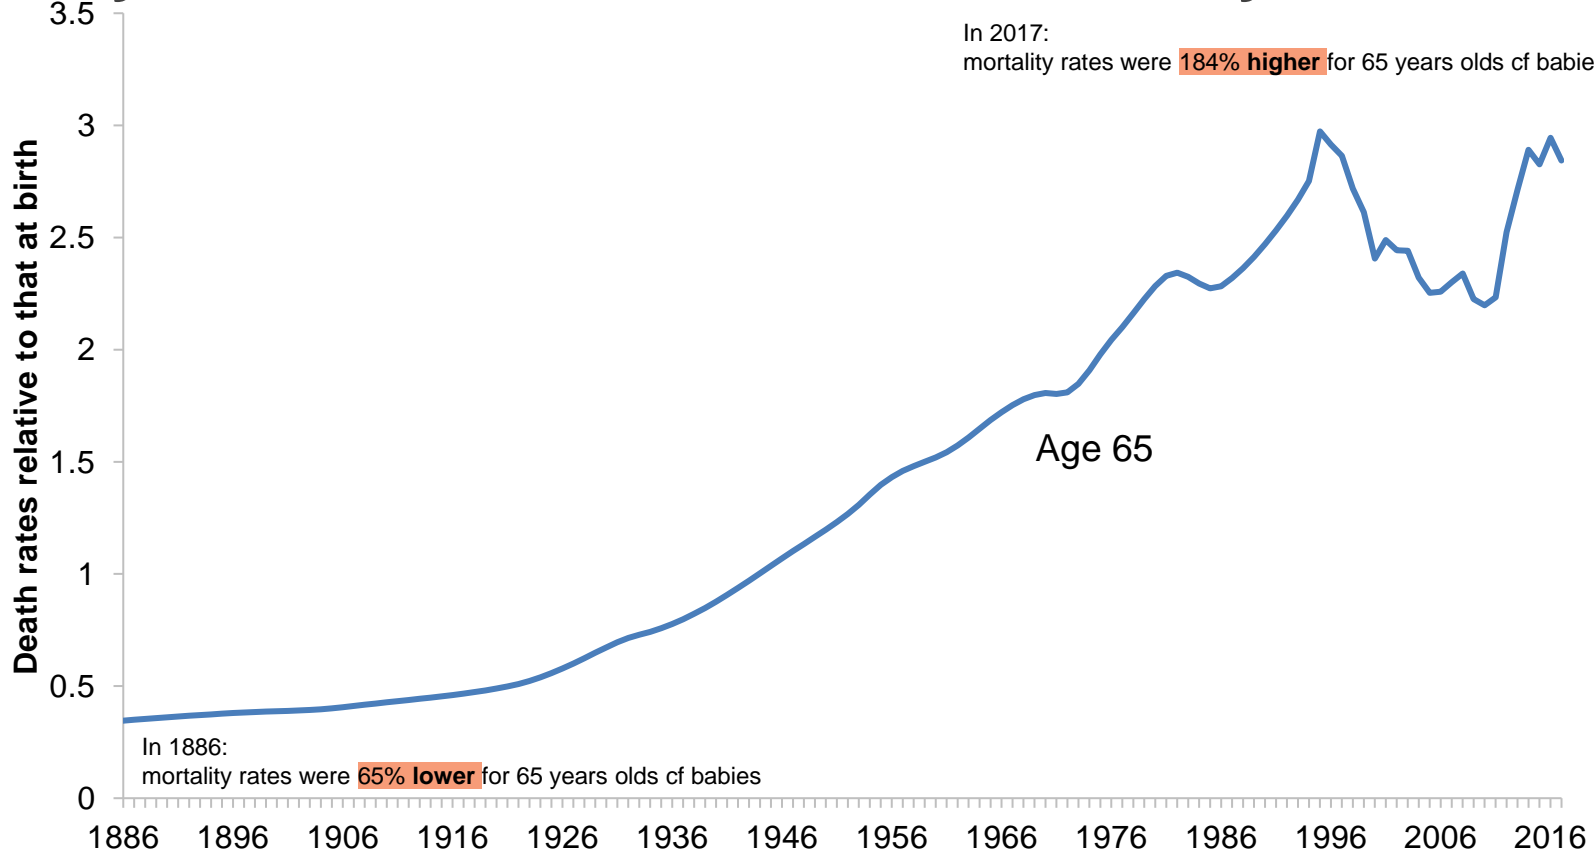

Health spending and life expectancy

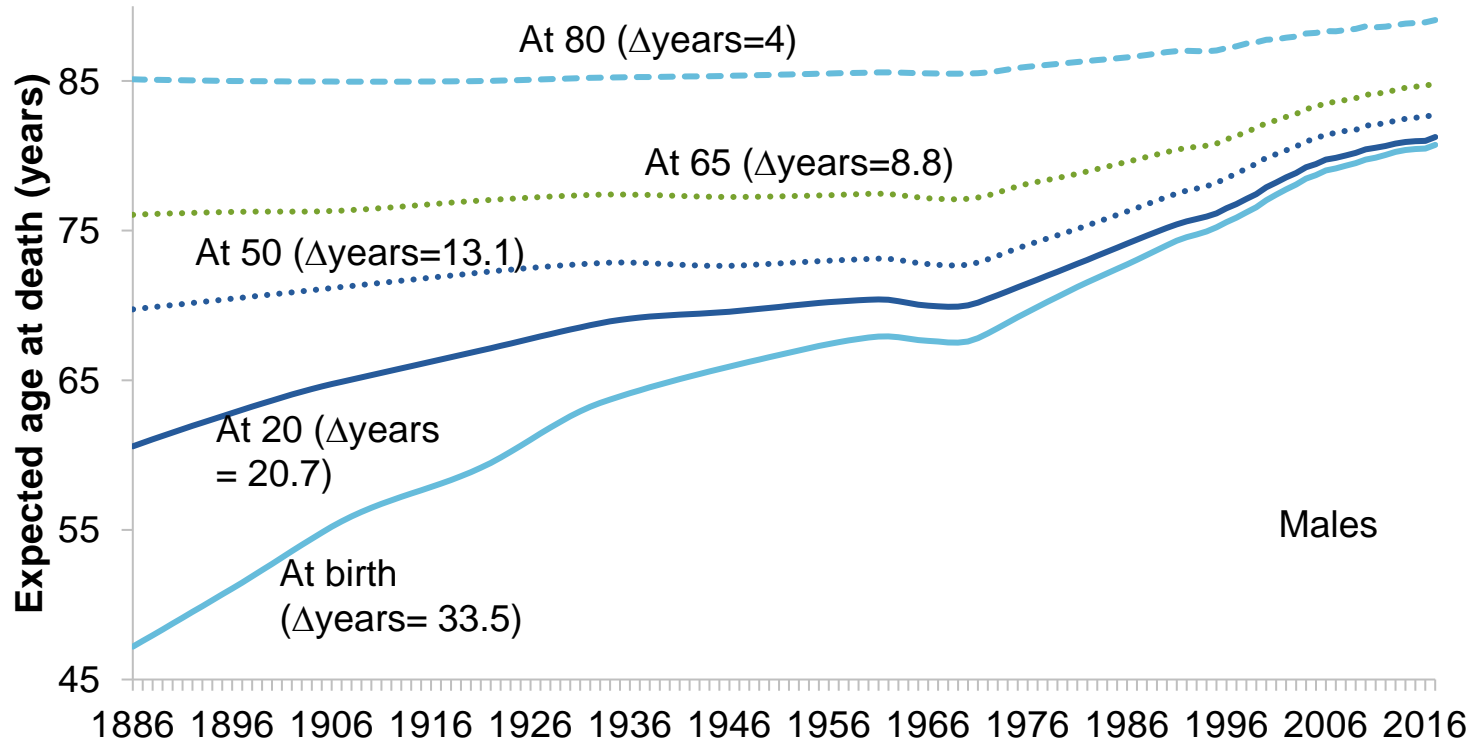

► A happy story about dying

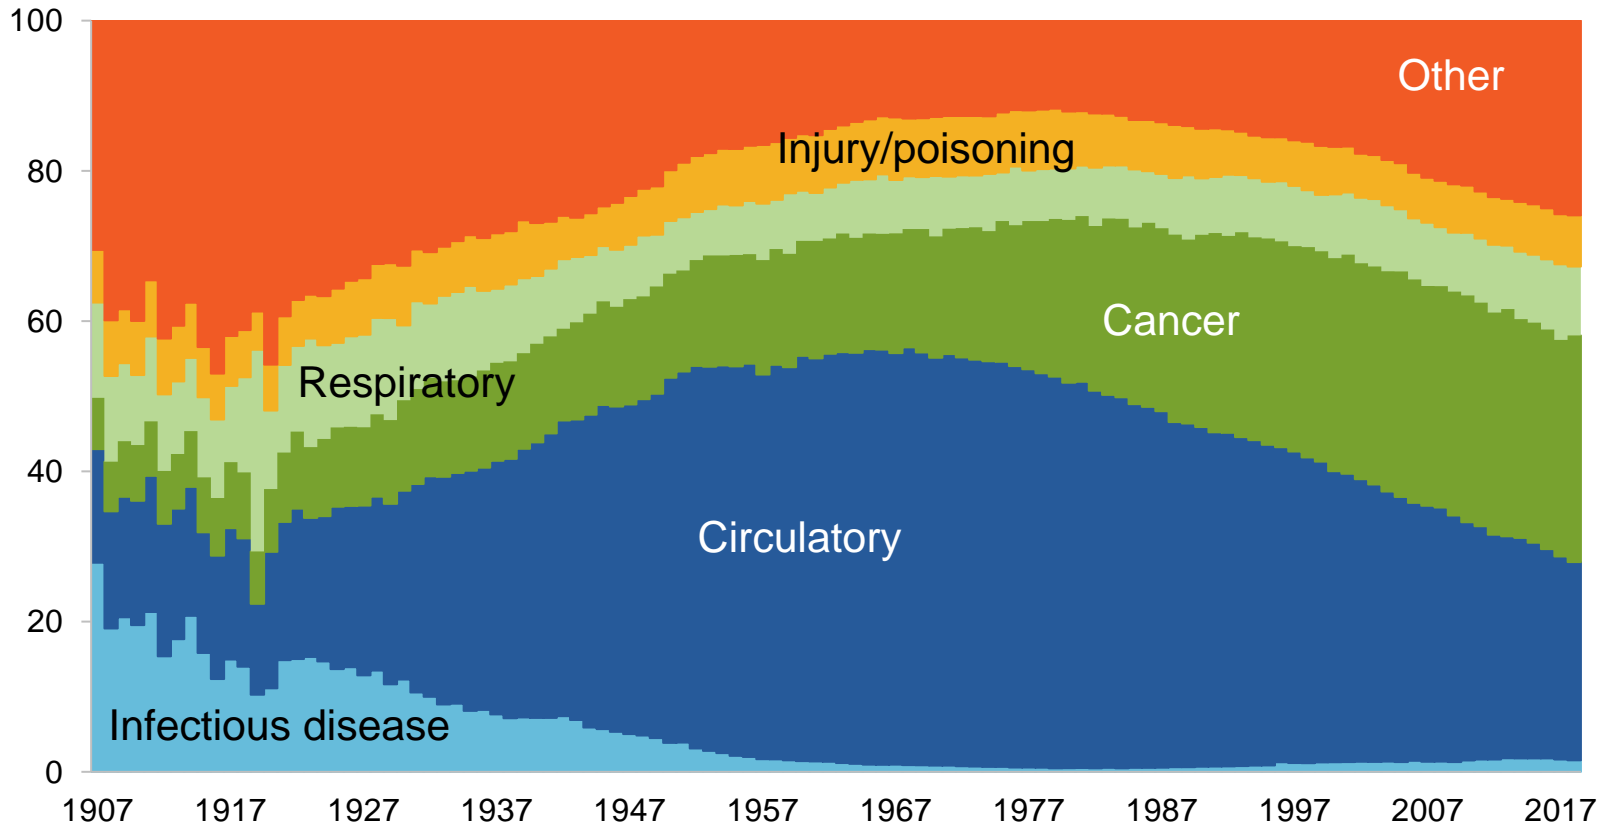

▶ 65 year olds used to have lower mortality rates than babies

► What this means for life expectancy

► Dying later means dying differently

▶ Living longer does not always mean living healthy

▶ The share of life in good health in Australia is close to the lowest in the OECD

@ozprodcom

@productivitycommission