

7A Corrective services — attachment

Definitions for the indicators and descriptors in this attachment are in section 7.6 of the chapter. Data in this chapter are examined by the Corrective Services Working Group, but have not been formally audited by the Secretariat. A peer review process is also undertaken by the National Corrections Advisory Group in the development of the data definitions. Unsourced information was obtained from corrective services agencies in State and Territory governments. Data for previous years presented in this Report may vary from figures published in previous Reports for these years.

This file is available in Adobe PDF format on the Review web page (www.pc.gov.au/gsp). Users without Internet access can contact the Secretariat to obtain these tables (see details on the inside front cover of the Report).

(a) NSW figures include ACT prisoners held in NSW prisons. ACT data are presented as total prisoners and separately by the jurisdiction in which the ACT prisoner is held. Australian figures are calculated so that ACT prisoners held in NSW prisons are not double counted.

(b) Daily averages figures are rounded to the nearest round number (including zero), so that sum of the figures presented in individual cells may not equate directly to the total figure provided.

.. Not applicable. – Nil or rounded to zero.

(a) Non-age standardised rates are based on the daily average prisoner, periodic detainee or offender populations supplied by states and territories. The population figures used to calculate rates are people at December 2004 aged 17 or over for Victoria and Queensland, and people aged 18 or over in the other jurisdictions, reflecting the age at which people are remanded or sentenced to adult custody. (Source: ABS National Centre for Crime and Justice Statistics).

(b) Interjurisdictional comparisons should be treated with care. Small changes in numbers in those jurisdictions with relatively low Indigenous populations can have a disproportionate effect on the respective rates.

	Units	NSW	Vic	Qld	WA	SA	Tas
(a)	The NT is unable to disaggregate costs into open and secure custody because each prison operates as a combined entity for financial management
(b)	Net recurrent expenditure excludes payroll tax and is net of recurrent receipts (own source revenues).
(c)	SA Correctional Services pay 30 per cent of the cost of prisoner transport, with remaining costs incurred between police, courts and health services.
(d)	Australian recurrent cost per prisoner for open and secure custody is calculated against Australian total daily average numbers minus NT prisoners in each level of custody. Australian averages also exclude any double counting of ACT prisoners held in NSW prisons.
(e)	Capital expenditure comprises user cost of capital, depreciation, and debt service fees where applicable
(f)	ACT capital costs relate only to remand and periodic detention centres in the ACT.
(g)	Calculated as 8 per cent of the value of government owned assets.
(h)	Debt servicing fees are accommodation services fees paid to privately owned prisons, equivalent to the user cost of capital for government owned facilities. This item is only applicable to Victoria in 2004-05.
(i)	Total cost per prisoner is the combined recurrent cost per prisoner per day (which is calculated from recurrent expenditure net of recurrent receipts [own source revenue] and payroll tax) plus capital cost per prisoner per day (which includes the user cost of capital, depreciation, and debt service fees where applicable). Total cost does not include the cost of transport and escort services where reported separately by jurisdictions.

(a) Prisoner employment figures are not applicable to the ACT, given ACT prisoners managed in the ACT are remand prisoners only. ACT prisoners held in NSW prisons are included under NSW. Australian calculations exclude ACT prisoners managed in ACT prisons.

(b) Victoria and Tasmania figures are based on the number of prisoners employed at 30 June and are calculated against the number of prisoners in custody on that day. All other jurisdictions use an average of the number of prisoners employed on the first day of each month, calculated against the daily average prisoner population.

(c) Australian averages for offender employment have not been calculated given the number of jurisdictions that did not report on this indicator.

(a) Prisoner education figures are not applicable to the ACT, given ACT prisoners managed in the ACT are remand prisoners only. ACT prisoners held in NSW prisons are included under NSW. Australian calculations exclude ACT prisoners managed in ACT prisons.

(b) Classification of education types is based on the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF), under which the Vocational Education and Training category includes advanced diplomas, diplomas, and certificates I to IV; the secondary schools education category includes senior secondary and certificate of education; and the higher education category includes doctoral and masters degrees, graduate diplomas, bachelor degrees, diplomas and advanced diplomas.

(c) Victorian and SA figures are based on the number of prisoners in education on the last day of term preceding 30 June, calculated against the number of prisoners in custody on that day. All other jurisdictions use a monthly count of prisoners in education averaged over the 12-month period, calculated against the daily average prisoner population.

(d) Percentage of total persons in education will not equal the sum of percentages for each education type, as an individual may be participating in more than one type of education category.

(e) Australian average figures are not calculated as only three jurisdictions reported on this indicator in 2004-05.

(a) In accordance with the national counting rule, assaults that occurred within a court complex are excluded. In 2004-05, there was one incident of serious assault between prisoners and none by prisoners on staff, 18 prisoner on prisoner assaults, and 17 prisoner on staff assaults in court cells.

New South Wales*Table 7A.25 Effectiveness, prisons

	2000-01	2001-02	2002-03	2003-04	2004-05
(b)	Includes deaths where there is insufficient evidence to assess, subject to a Coroner's finding, whether the cause of death was natural or unnatural. There was one such death from unknown causes of a non-indigenous prisoner reported in 2001-02, 2003-04 and 2004-05. These data exclude inmate deaths while on the Home Detention program (3 in 2000/01, 2 in 2002/03, 1 in 2003/04 and 2 in 2004/05)
(c)	In accordance with the national counting rule, these rates exclude other escapes/absconds (this category relates to absconds by prisoners on unescorted leave, such as work release or day leave, or by prisoners in work parties or participating in activities outside the perimeter without direct one-to-one supervision). There were 3 escapes of this type in 2004-05. Escapes by prisoners being transported to or from court or from within a court complex are also not counted within this category. In 2004-05 there were 2 escapes/absconds from court cells or court escorts.
(d)	NSW figures include all known irregular lockdowns and regular lock-ins, such as closures for meals, in the calculation of time out of cells.
(e)	The following classes of prisoners are excluded from the calculation of employment rates in all years: (i) prisoners in full time education and (ii) prisoners whose situation may exclude their participation in a work program (specifically, remandees who choose not to work; hospital patients or aged prisoners who are unable to work; prisoners whose protection status prohibits access to work; and fine defaulters who are only incarcerated for a few days at a time). These figures also exclude prisoners accommodated in the Transitional Centre for Women and those held in 24-hour court cells.
(f)	In 2003-04, there was a greater focus on providing vocational education and training, which resulted in an increase in the percentage of prisoners undertaking vocational education and training and a proportional decrease in those undertaking secondary education.

(a) As of and including 2004-05, completed orders exclude those terminated/discharged due to the death of the offender or orders registered in error.

(b) NSW has the discretion to terminate the supervision component of a recognizance/bond prior to the order's expiry date. This practice results in the offender being released to his/her own recognizance and required to remain of good behaviour for the duration of the order. This discretion is exercised by NSW only when the case management goals have been addressed and the offender poses no foreseeable threat to the community. These orders are counted as completions.

(b)	Includes deaths where there is insufficient evidence to assess, subject to a Coroner's finding, whether the cause of death was natural or unnatural. There were two such deaths from unknown causes of non-Indigenous prisoners reported in 2001-02 and one of an Indigenous prisoner in 2002-03.
(c)	In accordance with the national counting rule, these rates exclude other escapes/absconds (this category relates to absconds by prisoners on unescorted leave, such as work release or day leave, or by prisoners in work parties or participating in activities outside the perimeter without direct one-to-one supervision). There were 13 escapes of this type in 2004-05.
(d)	An improved data collection process was implemented from January 2003 which reflects greater accuracy in reporting against education indicators. Data for 2002-03 are based on data for January to June 2003 averaged to a full year result. 2002-03 figures are not directly comparable with previous years.

(a)	A complete audit of all assault incidents recorded on the prison information system was conducted in 2004-05, applying the national counting rules in strict accordance with the data collection manual definitions. This resulted in many recorded incidents being reclassified in terms of whether they fall within the scope of the national definition for this indicator and whether they are defined as 'assaults' or 'serious assaults'. Figures for 2004-05 are therefore not directly comparable with previous years.
(b)	Includes deaths where there is insufficient evidence to assess, subject to a Coroner's finding, whether the cause of death was natural or unnatural. There were one such death from unknown causes of a non-indigenous prisoner reported in 1999-2000 and in 2001-02 and one of an indigenous prisoner in 2002-03.
(c)	In accordance with the national counting rule, these rates exclude other escapes/absconds (this category relates to absconds by prisoners on unescorted leave, such as work release or day leave, or by prisoners in work parties or participating in activities outside the perimeter without direct one-to-one supervision). In WA, this count includes escapes from Work Camp Centres and hospitals. There were 18 such escapes in 2004-05.
(d)	Based on the security rating of the prison and not the security rating of the individual prisoner.
(e)	Prisoners ineligible for education programs include those older than 80 years of age, prisoners placed at the facility within the last ten working days, remandees of less than 28 days, short term fine defaulters, prisoners on temporary transfer to an external hospital, and prisoners placed with police as a trusty.

(a) Orders which were revoked for reasons other than breach or for which the termination type was not known are excluded. Court orders which have both a supervision and a work component are counted under each category. Program only orders without supervision or reparation (which do not fit under any category) are counted under supervision. As of and including 2004-05, completed orders exclude those terminated/discharged due to the death of the offender or orders registered in error.

(b) This category includes two types of orders, conditional bail and monitored bail. The number of conditional bail orders has increased relative to monitored bail, and, given these orders are more likely to be subject to breach action considering their nature and context of use (most often in a drug court setting), there has been a decline in the completion rate in 2004-05.

(c) Only Intensive Supervision Orders with a Work Component, Community Based Orders with a Work Component and Fine Option Orders have been included. Early Release Orders with a Work Component (Re-entry Release and some Parole Orders) have been excluded as the number of hours to be worked may vary between such orders and as there is no complete record of hours worked under such orders.

(d) WA is unable to provide complete information on the number of offenders undertaking personal development courses at any one time.

There were 7 escapes of this type in 2004-05. During 2004-05 six persons absconded by reason of breach of Home Detention conditions and one person absconded while on leave from a Pre-Release Centre
(d) In past reports all data were calculated against prisoners in custody on 30 June as employment data were only available at a single point in time. As of and including 2003-04 the number of prisoners in employment was the average of numbers on the first day of each month over the year and percentages were calculated against the daily average number of prisoners over the year. During 2004-05 a number of prisoners who would normally be employed in Commercial Industries were enlisted to assist in rebuilding fencelines in the Eyre Peninsular as part of the State Government re-building initiatives following major bushfire damage in that area.
(e) Remand prisoners, prisoners at court and prisoners confined to James Nash House (a forensic psychiatric facility that provides secure accommodation for prisoners undergoing psychiatric assessment and treatment) are excluded from this count. In 2003-04 the count of prisoners in education was taken on a single day (28 June) whereas in past years the number of prisoners was based on a count of enrolments over the whole year. Figures are therefore not directly comparable with previous years. Implementation of Certificate 1 in Employment Skills as a conceptual base for literacy has resulted in a significant increase of prisoners involved in education in 2003-04.

Tasmania*Table 7A.57 Effectiveness, prisons

	2000-01	2001-02	2002-03	2003-04	2004-05
(b)	The rate for escape from secure custody in 2003-04 comprises a single incident where the escape occurred during a 'handcuffed' escort from an escort van into a court building, not from a secure prison facility. In accordance with the national counting rule, escape rates exclude other escapes/absconds (this category relates to absconds by prisoners on unescorted leave, such as work release or day leave, or by prisoners in work parties or participating in activities outside the perimeter without direct one-to-one supervision). There were no escapes of this type in 2004-05.
(c)	Part of the reduction in out of cell hours (secure) can be attributed to a 5 day lockdown at the Risdon Maximum Security Prison following the siege situation at that facility in May 2005.
(d)	All data calculated against prisoners in custody on 30 June. Tasmanian employment rates in 2001-02 were affected by a significantly higher number of prisoners in custody at 30 June 2002 relative to the daily average number of prisoners over the course of the year. While the number of employment positions has remained stable in 2004-05, percentage of prisoners employed has decreased due to the sharp rise in prisoner numbers.
(e)	The increased participation rate in 2003-04 is due to the increased scope of the Registered Training Organisation and the innovative, industries based traineeships that are offered. Education rate dropped in 2004-05 following a siege in Risdon Mens Maximum Security Prison in May 2005 and prisoners were unable to access education for the ensuing two months.

(a) Data for previous years have been adjusted by the gross domestic product deflator.

(b) The Ron Barwick Medium Security Prison was demolished in January 2004 and was fully depreciated in 2002-03, resulting in a decrease in depreciation for prison buildings and structures between 2002-03 to 2003-04. In 2002-03, the Department was required to write back $3.8m of depreciation as a result of planning changes to the new prison development. Previous year figures included amounts for accelerated depreciation based on existing buildings being demolished within 6 years. The new plan includes keeping existing buildings as part of the new complex. For comparison purposes the depreciation was shown before the write back.

(c) The sharp increase in design utilisation in 2004-05 is influenced by both a continuing rise in prisoner numbers during the reporting period and the decommissioning of the Risdon Medium Security Prison in January 2004 to make way for the construction of new facilities.

(c) Utilisation rates relate to remand prisoners at the Belconnen Remand Centre and STRC only. Open and secure custody breakdown is not applicable.

(d) There was an increase in Periodic Detention orders made by the ACT Courts in 2004-05 resulting in an increase in the utilisation of the Periodic Detention Centre.

(a) Restricted movement orders (home detention) were introduced in the ACT from October 2001 and became available as a sentencing option in October 2002. The low number of restricted movement orders in previous years can be attributed to the unsuitability of some offenders to undertake such orders. There was a significant increase in the number of restricted movement orders made by the Courts in 2004-05.

(b) Total persons may not equal the sum of persons per order type because an offender may be serving more than one order type.

(c) Data for previous years have been adjusted by the gross domestic product deflator.

(d) The introduction of home detention during 2001-02 increased recurrent expenditure from previous year levels.

(b) ACT rates are based on only a very small number of orders each year and are therefore not indicative of long term trends and may fluctuate from year to year.

(c) As of and including 2004-05, this figure excludes offenders on CSO bail orders returned to corrections on bail in order to eliminate double counting of CSO orders.

Offender-to-all staff	31.9	24.0	20.2	17.7	17.8

(a) Data for previous years have been adjusted by the gross domestic product deflator.

(b) The land asset component of calculating user cost of capital is not applicable for the ACT given that offices are rental premises, although some depreciation costs are applicable and are included in these figures, for example, depreciation on fit out of the rented premises. Capital costs are therefore based on only the user cost of capital component of other assets and relevant depreciation costs.

(c) From 2002-03, Sentence Administration Board staff are counted under 'other' staff, as they are not actually supervising offenders. These staff had been included under 'operational' staff in previous Reports. Offender-to-staff ratios for community corrections have been adjusted for 2001-02 and 2002-03 due to staffing reclassifications for operational and other staff providing advice to sentencing and releasing authorities.

(b) In accordance with the national counting rule, these rates exclude other escapes/absconds (this category relates to absconds by prisoners on unescorted leave, such as work release or day leave, or by prisoners in work parties or participating in activities outside the perimeter without direct one-to-one supervision). There was one escape of this type in 2004-05.
(c) The increase in out-of-cell hours in 2004-05 relates to the low security area at Alice Springs Correctional Centre being counted as 'open' 24 hours. These areas are not locked at any time.
(d) Prior to 2003-04, figures were based on a count of prisoners in education on a single day and calculated against prisoners in custody on 30 June.

(a) Figures include offenders on inactive orders except for those on orders that have been inactive for more than three years.

(b) Total persons may not equal the sum of persons per order type because an offender may be serving more than one order type.

(c) Data for previous years have been adjusted by the gross domestic product deflator. From 2001-02 recurrent expenditure excludes estimated costs attributable to juvenile justice functions (that is, supervision of young offenders by community corrections staff) which falls outside the scope of the corrective services function as defined in this Report. Figures for previous years include these costs.
