COURT ADMINISTRATION (CHAPTER 7)

- The focus of this chapter is the court administration functions of Australian and State and Territory courts. Data are reported for the Federal Court of Australia, the Family Court of Australia and the Federal Magistrates Court, the criminal and civil jurisdictions of the supreme courts (including probate registries), district/county courts, magistrates' courts (including electronic systems and children's courts), coroners' courts and the Family Court of WA.
- In 2008-09, in the criminal jurisdiction of the supreme, district/county and magistrates' courts, approximately 867 800 cases were lodged, and 885 700 cases were finalised. In the civil jurisdiction of these same courts there were approximately 639 200 cases lodged and 613 400 cases finalised. In the Australian courts, approximately 113 600 cases were lodged, and approximately 114 900 cases finalised (pp. 7.18–21).
- Total court administration recurrent expenditure less income (excluding fines) by the court authorities covered in this chapter was approximately $1.11 billion in 2008-09, comprising $849 million for the State and Territory courts and $264 million for the Australian courts (p. 7.13).

Objectives of court administration

- Common objectives for court administration services across Australia are: to be open and accessible; to process matters in an expeditious and timely manner; to provide due process and equal protection before the law; and to be independent yet publicly accountable for performance (p. 7.22).
