PLS3. Are you currently receiving payments via the Pension Loan Scheme?

[Single response] [Do not rotate]

1. Yes
2. No

If PLS1 = 2 then ask PLS4
PLS4. The Pension Loan Scheme is offered by the Australian government and enables individuals who are receiving either a part Age Pension or no Age Pension to increase their fortnightly income by securing a loan on real estate they own including their own home. Key features of the Pension Loan Scheme are as follows:

- Payments made under the Pension Loan Scheme can be received over a short or indefinite period
- The amount someone is able to receive under the Pension Loan Scheme is dependent upon the equity they have in their property to offer as security, the equity they wish to keep in the property and their age when the loan is granted
- Payments can boost someone’s fortnightly income up to the maximum pension rate
- Interest is charged on the loan which is compounded
- The loan can be repaid at any time or the debt can be left to be recovered from the individual’s estate

Based on the previous definition, would you ever consider taking out a loan via the Pension Loan Scheme?
