Types of formal care

Public (or free) kindergarten

- usually aged between 3 and 5 years
- younger children usually attend afternoon sessions (3 per week) and older children attend morning sessions (5 per week)

Playcentre

- birth to school age
- sessions up to five per week

Te Kohanga Reo

- birth to school age
- sessional or all-day care
- to nurture and promote Maori language and culture

Pacific Islands early childhood centre

- varies from a weekly meeting to full-time care
- to develop and maintain the Pacific Islands languages and cultures

Childcare centre

- birth to school age
- sessional, all-day, flexible or casual hours
- examples are: private kindergartens, creches, infant centres, preschools, Montessori, shoppers or sports creches, campus creches or factory childcare services

Playgroup

- birth to school age
- examples of where playgroups take place: community centres, church halls or private homes

Before and/or after school care programme

- 5-13 year old children
- a formal supervised programme, not a lesson or a hobby group
- sometimes called (OSCAR) out-of-school care and recreation programme

Organised homebased care programme

- all ages
- sometimes called family daycare
- caregivers provide care in their own home or in the child's home
- caregivers are supported and supervised by a co-ordinator such as Barnardos

Types of informal care

Anyone else

- includes care by family members eg siblings or grandparents
- includes paid care eg Nanny
- includes unpaid care eg a neighbour or friend
- does not include things like hobby classes, lessons, boarding school, hospital or school camps
- does not include care by the HLFS parent roles
